

OPENING OF ORPHANS' HOME AND DAY NURSERY

Exercises Largely Attended by Friends of the Popular Institution On Tenth South.

Thursday's opening of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery on east Tenth south street was largely attended by the friends of the popular institution, with a program of speeches and music. At 2 p.m. the following exercises were held:

Organ solo.....John B. Berkhoff
Invocation.....Dean S. R. Colquhoun
Address.....Judge C. S. Zane
Presentation of the flag.....M. J. Brines
Song.....Rev. F. B. Short
Vocal solo.....Morris Andrews
At the same time the spacious and elegant building was thrown open for inspection by the interested public which included many of the prominent people of the city. The various wards were carefully looked over in which all of the local religious denominations are represented, thus indicating the non-sectarian, cosmopolitan character of the institution. In the evening, many people who could not be there earlier, were present. The entire interior was handsomely decorated with flowers and lights, and the day pleasantly closed. Mrs. Rachel S. Miller, president of the association, presided over the exercises. Judge Zane's address was particularly interesting. He brought out the well directed efforts of but a handful of women had resulted in the building and re-establishment of this valuable charity for little ones cast on the ocean of life whose helpless condition demands earnest and intelligent care and direction.

ANOTHER WARRANT DROPS OUT OF SIGHT

One Issued Against Policeman Who Assaulted Thurston Brown Is Mysteriously Missing.

Where is C. W. Pitts? The directory says he is a police officer of the city of Salt Lake and lives at 769 west Eighth South street.

Asst. City Atty. W. S. Dalton—he of the trusty Waterman and the Socialist tendencies—issued a warrant yesterday for the man named Pitts, charging him with having assaulted one William Thurston Brown. The warrant was given to the police to serve. The warrant has disappeared.

Mr. Dalton says that he will issue another if the police don't serve the one handed to them yesterday. Chief Barlow denies having received the one Mr. Dalton issued yesterday.

Mr. Dalton denies that he prayed to have the police and the Socialists destroyed by a big wind. He says further and emphatically that he prays to nothing and denies the existence of an orthodox Supreme Being, and has said this view for some years. He said for this reason the statement in a morning paper to the effect that he spent last night in prayer is a gross libel.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Margaret Werner and Adolph Henry Quist which took place last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Teresa K. Werner. The bride wore pink and white and was carried out in decorations, dress and other details, the parlor where the ceremony was performed being in pink and white asters and ferns, the bride party standing in a corner backed with palms, ferns and flowers, and pink and white asters being all about the room. The dining room was done in the same flowers, and the ice and all details were in the pink and white. At 8 o'clock the bride party entered the room through an aisle formed with pink satin streamers, the little flower girl, Miss Vilate Kimball coming first, followed by Miss Clara Smith, then Miss Katherine Jennings and Miss Elsie Yates. The party joined the groom and his best man and Bishop T. A. Clawson who performed the ceremony. Miss Sybella Clayton rendered delightful bridal music. The bride was beautiful in her gown of white satin with trimmings of Duchess and rose point lace, and long veil, her bouquet being of bride's roses. The three bridesmaids wore gowns of pink chiffon over pink satin and carried bouquets of pink roses, and the little flower girl wore a dainty gown of pink and white. An orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening, and assisting in the refreshments were the Misses Margaret Taylor, Nan Clawson, Margaret Whitney, Rehan Spencer and Winnifred Furrus. About 100 were present. Mr. and Mrs. Quist will go for an eastern trip and later go to Arizona to reside.

Another pretty wedding of last night was that of Miss Elsie Burton and John W. Scoville following the marriage which was solemnized during the day in the temple, the affair taking place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. H. Burton. The rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, white chrysanthemums and ferns being used in the parlor and pink asters in the dining room, the latter being especially pretty with its table done in pink, a mound of asters forming the centerpiece and streamers of pink tulle extending from the chandelier to the four corners. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white lingerie with trimmings of embroidery and lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She had no attendants. Assisting in receiving were Mr. Burton and Mrs. Annie Scoville, parents of the bride and groom, together with Miss Alice Crismon and Miss Leone Burton. Delightful musical numbers were given by Miss Romanina Hyde, Miss Beatrice Burton, Miss Clayton and Clarence Burton. About 100 friends were present.

Miss Effie Swanner and C. R. Higson were among yesterday's bride and groom, the wedding taking place last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the bride's home, Judge Armstrong performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends. The rooms were bright with the season's flowers, and intimate friends assisted in entertaining. The bride was given away by her brother L. B. Swanner, and Miss Nora Swanner acted as bridesmaid and Judd Swanner best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of white just cloth satin and white and carried bride's roses. Her bridesmaid wore a gown of pink satin and her bouquet was of fresh roses. Mr. and Mrs. Higson will go to Madison, Wis., to attend the university there during the winter.

Tomorrow a meeting of the standing committees and local directors of the State Federation of Women's clubs will be held at the home of Mrs. G. W. E. Dorsey at 66 First street, from 2:30 to 3:30, and afterward from 3:30 to 5:30 an informal reception will be held at the same place in honor of Mrs. Philip Moore, president of the General Federation, all club women being cordially invited to attend.

Miss Mignon Penhelter entertained her sewing club yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. S. Campbell on Tenth avenue, in honor of Miss Alice Nibley, the rooms being decorated in asters of various shades, and 500 being the amusement. Four tables were played and prizes awarded the guest of honor, Miss Ray Campbell, Miss Rea Nibley and Miss Myrtle Jack. Present were Mrs. E. E. Byer, Mrs. Joseph Nibley, Mrs. Joe Nibley and the Misses Dagmar Orlob, Leilah Sjobahi, Rea Nibley, Albin Dunbar, Rodolph King, Sybella Clayton and Mrs. Merrill Nibley.

Mrs. A. C. Maclean and Miss Aileen Maclean were brides at a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Robert N. Campbell, the hours being from 3 to 6. The parlors were decorated in purple dahlias and the dining room in yellow, the table having for a centerpiece a basket of the flowers tied with a bow of yellow tulle. ## School Shoes--Boys and Girls

Nobody should be conscious that shoes are on the feet.

If any one is, it is because the feet are not at ease in the shoes. In other words, the shoes don't fit.

Hence, if school children's shoes don't fit, the wearers can't give proper attention to their studies—could you continue to concentrate your attention if your shoes pinched.

Give children foot ease and comfort—give them Walker shoes. Let our trained shoe people fit their feet, and we guarantee the comfort that forgets the shoe. Besides, only shoes that fit enable the growing foot to retain nature-lines and develop symmetrically.

These shoes are made with the Goodyear welt, which (being the next thing to hand-sewing) enables the shoes to have the repair soles sewed on by hand.

TURKEYS SMITTEN.

Dreaded Enterohentitis Breaks Out In Utah-Poultry Runs.

The turkeys in Salt Lake county are the next of the fowl family to be threatened with an insidious and highly infectious disease. Unlike the disease which has played havoc with the wild ducks in the county, the nature of the infection is known. Enterohentitis is the scientific term for the strange malady, but in common parlance it is known as degeneration of the liver.

Two turkeys, which had died from the disease, were brought into the bacteriological laboratory of the city board of health, for bacteriological examination by Shoppe & Odell, owners of the Bonneville ranch in North Salt Lake.

An examination by Dr. R. W. Ashley and Dr. J. W. Treman, showed an ulcerated condition of the liver in the two birds.

The owners of the Bonneville ranch have lost about 40 turkeys as a result of the disease during the past few weeks. On suggestion of the bacteriological department of the board of health they will separate the healthy turkeys from all those thought to be infected.

The disease is said to be especially destructive to the young birds.

Several years ago the turkey industry in Rhode Island was almost put out of business by this disease. Thousands of turkeys died before steps were taken to stop its spread. Following a determined fight, the disease was stamped out.

Solid, Sweet Meat Characterizes BLANCHARD Milk-Fed Chickens

Chicken is a meat that must be the best to be thoroughly enjoyed. coarse meat is objectionable. Tough meat is not to be tolerated. Only sweet and tender chicken is Real Chicken.

BLANCHARD Chickens are fed buttermilk and grain, food that produces a firm, yet tender and sweet meat. They are thus dieted until the day they are ordered by your butcher, when they are killed, bled and dry picked.

You recognize a BLANCHARD chicken by its plumpness and the label on its head. You are impressed with the contrast between BLANCHARD and the common variety of chickens that have been supplying your table. Your enthusiasm waxes greater when you find how nicely this plump fowl can be prepared for that chicken-dinner appetite of your family.

Then comes the taste. The children's mouths water as they wait for their "drum sticks." And now tender the meat is! This isn't like common chicken. This is real chicken. And Twist "wants more," everybody, like Oliver Firmly insist on satisfying yourself on this point of obtaining better chicken. Buy tender, sweet meat—that's a BLANCHARD chicken. Ask your dealer.
